PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

May 10, 1999

GENERAL

This Proxy Statement (first mailed to shareholders on or about April 14, 1999) is furnished in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of PS Business Parks, Inc. (the "Company") of proxies, including the enclosed Proxy, for use at the Company's Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held at the Red Lion Hotel, 100 West Glenoaks Boulevard, Glendale, California at 1:00 p.m. Los Angeles time on May 10, 1999 or at any adjournment of the meeting. The purposes of the meeting are (1) to elect seven directors of the Company, (2) to consider and vote on an amendment to the Company's articles of incorporation to increase the ownership limitation applicable to the Company's Common Stock from 2% to 7% of the outstanding Common Stock and (3) to consider such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting or any adjournment of the meeting.

Shares of Common Stock represented by a Proxy in the accompanying form, if the Proxy is properly executed and is received by the Company before the voting, will be voted in the manner specified on the Proxy. If no specification is made with respect to the election of directors or the amendment to the articles of incorporation, the shares will be voted FOR the election as directors of the nominees named hereinafter and FOR approval of the amendment to the articles of incorporation. The persons designated as proxies reserve full discretion to cast votes for other persons if any of the nominees become unavailable to serve. A Proxy is revocable by delivering a subsequently signed and dated Proxy or other written notice to the Secretary of the Company at any time before its exercise. A Proxy may also be revoked if the person executing the Proxy is present at the meeting and chooses to vote in person.

In a March 17, 1998 merger (the "AOPP Merger") of American Office Park Properties, Inc. ("AOPP") with and into the Company, the Company acquired the commercial property business previously operated by AOPP and the Company changed its name from "Public Storage Properties XI, Inc." to "PS Business Parks, Inc." As a result of the AOPP Merger, the Company became the sole general partner of PS Business Parks, L.P., through which the Company conducts most of its activities.

QUORUM AND VOTING

The presence at the meeting in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Common Stock is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Only holders of record of Common Stock at the close of business on March 15, 1999 (the "Record Date") will be entitled to vote at the meeting, or at any adjournment of the meeting. On the Record Date, the Company had 23,637,410 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding.

With respect to the election of directors, each holder of Common Stock on the Record Date is entitled to cast as many votes as there are directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shares registered in his name on the Record Date. The holder may cumulate his votes for directors by casting all of his votes for one candidate or by distributing his votes among as many candidates as he chooses. The seven candidates who receive the most votes will be elected directors of the Company. In voting upon the amendment to the articles of incorporation and any other proposal that might properly come before the meeting, each holder of Common Stock is entitled to one vote for each share registered in his name.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Seven directors, constituting the entire Board of Directors, are to be elected at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, to hold office until the next annual meeting and until their successors are elected and qualified. When the accompanying Proxy is properly executed and returned to the Company before the voting, the persons named in the Proxy will vote the shares represented by the Proxy as indicated on the Proxy. If any nominee below becomes unavailable for any reason or if any vacancy on the Company's Board of Directors occurs before the election, the shares represented by any Proxy voting for that nominee will be voted for the person, if any, designated by the Board of Directors to replace the nominee or to fill the vacancy on the Board. In December 1997, Ronald L. Havner, Jr. and Mary Jayne Howard each entered into an employment agreement with AOPP, which agreements were assumed by the Company in the AOPP Merger. Mr. Havner's employment agreement is for a term of two years (ending in December 1999) and provides for a minimum annual base salary of $185,000 and a discretionary annual bonus. Effective March 1, 1999, Mr. Havner's annual base salary was increased to $285,000. Ms. Howard's employment agreement was for a term of one year (which ended in December 1998) and provided for a minimum annual base salary of $165,000 and a discretionary annual bonus. The agreements include provisions restricting Mr. Havner and Ms. Howard from competing with the Company during employment. In the event of termination of an agreement by the Company without cause, termination by the employee with cause or a merger or consolidation in which the Company is not the surviving corporation, or a transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company (other than any merger approved by Mr. Havner in which the agreement is assumed by the surviving corporation), each agreement provides for the following payments: (i) the present value of the employee's annual base salary for the remainder of the term of the agreement (based on a discount rate of 5%), (ii) a prorated portion of the employee's last annual bonus, but in no event less than the employee's annual base salary and (iii) the acceleration of the vesting of the employee's stock options so that all of the employee's outstanding stock options will be exercisable during a specified period.

In May 1998, J. Michael Lynch entered into an employment agreement with the Company. Mr. Lynch's employment agreement is for a term of one year (ending in May 1999) and provides for a minimum annual base salary of $145,000, a signing bonus of $30,000 and a discretionary annual bonus. The agreement includes a provision restricting Mr. Lynch from competing with the Company during employment. In the event of termination of the agreement by the Company without cause, the agreement provides for the payment by the Company of the present value of Mr. Lynch's annual base salary for the remainder of the term of the agreement (based on a discount rate of 5%) (the "Base Salary Payment"), but in no event less than $72,500. In the event of a merger or consolidation in which the Company is not the surviving corporation, or a transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company (other than any merger approved by the Company's Chief Executive Officer in which the agreement is assumed by the surviving corporation), the agreement provides for the following payments: (i) the Base Salary Payment, but in no event less than $72,500 and (ii) the acceleration of the vesting of Mr. Lynch's stock options so that all of Mr. Lynch's outstanding stock options will be exercisable at the time of closing of such transaction. In the event of termination of the agreement by Mr. Lynch with cause, the agreement provides for the payment by the Company of the Base Salary Payment, but in no event less than $145,000.

(the "Operating Partnership"). Concurrently with the AOPP Merger, the Company exchanged 13 predominantly mini-warehouse properties for 11 commercial properties owned by PSI. In the AOPP Merger, (i) B. Wayne Hughes, the Company's former chief executive officer, received 113,931 shares of the Company's Common Stock in exchange for his shares of the Company's Common Stock Series B and C, and the other former executive officers of the Company received an aggregate of 7,492 shares of the Company's Common Stock in exchange for their shares of AOPP's common stock, (ii) options to purchase shares of AOPP common stock held by former executive officers of the Company were assumed by the Company and converted into options to purchase an aggregate of 26,370 shares of the Company's Common Stock, (iii) Ronald L. Havner, Jr. and Mary Jayne Howard, who became executive officers of the Company as a result of the AOPP Merger, received an aggregate of 71,008 shares of the Company's Common Stock in exchange for their shares of AOPP's common stock, (iv) options to purchase shares of AOPP common stock held by Ronald L. Havner, Jr. and Mary Jayne Howard were assumed by the Company and converted into options to purchase an aggregate of 172,983 shares of the Company's Common Stock, (v) PSI and its affiliated partnership received an aggregate of 4,576,785 shares of the Company's Common Stock in exchange for their shares of AOPP's common stock and the Company's Common Stock Series B and C, (vi) Acquiport received 5,289,765 shares of the Company's Common Stock in exchange for its shares of AOPP's common stock and (vii) an aggregate of 2,185,189 shares of the Company's Common Stock was received by the institutional investors listed below in exchange for their shares of AOPP's common stock: State of Michigan Retirement Systems, Cohen & Steers Capital Management, Inc., Morgan Stanley Asset Management, Harvard Private Capital Realty, Inc., ABKB/LaSalle Securities Limited Partnership, Fidelity Real Estate Investment Portfolio, Stanford University, The Fidelity REIT Collective Pool, State Employees' Retirement Fund of the State of Delaware and J.W. McConnell Family Foundation (collectively, the "Institutional Investors"). In addition, as a result of the AOPP Merger, the number of units of limited partnership interest in the Operating Partnership ("Units") owned by PSI and its affiliated partnerships was adjusted to 7,305,355 Units. The AOPP Merger was approved by the shareholders and the disinterested directors of the Company.

Loans from Affiliate. On May 1, 1998, the Operating Partnership borrowed $179 million from PSI to fund a portion of the acquisition cost of real estate facilities. On May 6, 1998, $105 million of the loan was repaid and the remaining balance was repaid on May 27, 1998. The loan bore interest at 6.91% per year. The terms of this loan were approved by the Company's disinterested directors.

In January 1999, PSI agreed to make a loan to the Operating Partnership of up to $40 million on a revolving basis. In January 1999, the Operating Partnership borrowed an aggregate of $32.5 million from PSI to repay the outstanding balance on the Operating Partnership's bank line of credit and to fund a portion of the acquisition cost of real estate facilities. The Operating Partnership repaid an aggregate of $13.5 million of the loan in January through March 1999, and the Operating Partnership borrowed an additional $8.7 million in March 1999. The loan bears interest at 5.5% per year and is due on June 30, 1999. The terms of this loan were approved by the Company's disinterested directors.

Sale of Stock to Institutional Investors. On May 6, 1998, pursuant to an agreement assumed by the Company in the AOPP Merger, the Company sold in a private placement an aggregate of 4,588,885 shares of its Common Stock for an aggregate amount of $104,999,911 in cash to the Institutional Investors.

Future Issuances of Common Stock. If the Company proposes to issue shares of its Common Stock at less than $22.88 per share, Acquiport and the Institutional Investors will each have the right to purchase a number of shares on the same proposed terms sufficient for Acquiport and the Institutional Investors to maintain their respective percentage interests in the Company. This right will terminate when the Company has raised $155 million of Common Stock in one or more public offerings.

Management Agreements with Affiliates. Prior to the AOPP Merger, PSI operated the Company's (formerly Public Storage Properties XI, Inc.'s) mini-warehouse facilities pursuant to a management agreement under which the Company paid to PSI a fee of 6% of the gross revenues of the mini-warehouse facilities operated for the Company. During 1998 (prior to the AOPP Merger), the Company paid fees of $78,621 to PSI pursuant to that management agreement.

The Operating Partnership operates industrial, retail and office facilities for PSI and partnerships and joint ventures of which PSI is a general partner or joint venturer ("Affiliated Entities") pursuant to a management agreement under which PSI and the Affiliated Entities pay to the Operating Partnership a fee of 5% of the gross revenues of the facilities operated for PSI and the Affiliated Entities. During 1998, PSI and the Affiliated Entities paid fees of $444,756 to the Operating Partnership pursuant to that management agreement. As to facilities directly owned by PSI, the management agreement has a seven-year term with the term being automatically extended for one year on each anniversary date (thereby maintaining a seven-year term) unless either party (PSI or the Operating Partnership) notifies the other that the management agreement is not being extended, in which case it expires, as to such facilities, on the first anniversary of its then scheduled expiration date. As to facilities owned by the Affiliated Entities, the management agreement may be terminated as to such facilities upon 60 days' notice by PSI (on behalf of the Affiliated Entity) and upon seven years' notice by the Operating Partnership.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND THE AUDIT COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Company pays its executive officers compensation deemed appropriate in view of the nature of the Company's business, the performance of individual executive officers, and the Company's objective of providing incentives to its executive officers to achieve a level of individual and Company performance that will maximize the value of shareholders' investment in the Company. To those ends, the Company's compensation program consists of payment of a base salary and, potentially, bonus compensation, and making incentive awards of options to purchase Common Stock. Grants of options to executive officers are made under the 1997 Stock Option and Incentive Plan. In connection with the AOPP Merger, the Company assumed the outstanding options to purchase AOPP common stock granted by AOPP under AOPP's 1997 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, which were converted into options to purchase the Company's Common Stock ("Converted Options"), and the Company adopted the 1997 Stock Option and Incentive Plan (the "1997 Plan") as a new plan of the Company for the purpose of covering and administering Converted Options and making awards to eligible participants.

Cash Compensation. Base salary levels are based generally on market compensation rates and each individual's role in the Company, subject in certain cases to minimums set forth in individual employment agreements. The Company determines market compensation rates by reviewing public disclosures of compensation paid to executive officers by other REITs of comparable size and market capitalization. Some of the REITs whose executive compensation the Company considered in establishing the compensation it pays to executive officers are included in the NAREIT Equity Index referred to below under the caption "Stock Price Performance Graph." Generally, the Company seeks to compensate its executives at levels consistent with the middle of the range of amounts paid by REITs deemed comparable by the Company. Individual salaries may vary based on the experience and contribution to overall corporate performance by a particular executive officer.

In connection with the AOPP Merger, the Company assumed AOPP's employment agreements with Ronald L. Havner, Jr., who became the Company's Chief Executive Officer, and Mary Jayne Howard, who became the Company's Executive Vice President in charge of property operations. Mr. Havner's base compensation for 1998 was established in his employment agreement at $185,000 per year, and Ms. Howard's base compensation for 1998 was established in her employment agreement at $165,000 per year. Effective March 1, 1999, Mr. Havner's base compensation was increased to $285,000 per year based on his superior performance as Chief Executive Officer during 1998.

The Company bases its payment of annual bonuses on corporate, business unit and individual performance. In establishing individual bonuses, the Company takes into account the Company's overall profitability, the Company's internal revenue growth, the Company's revenue growth due to acquisitions, and the executive officer's contribution to the Company's growth and profitability. The Company based its payment of the Chief Executive Officer's bonus for 1998 on the Company's performance, taking into account the AOPP Merger.

Equity-Based Compensation. The Company believes that its executive officers should have an incentive to improve the Company's performance by having an ongoing stake in the success of the Company's business. The Company seeks to create this incentive by granting to appropriate executive officers stock options that have an exercise price of not less than 100% of the fair market value of the underlying stock on the date of grant, so that the executive officer may not profit from the option unless the price of the Common Stock increases. Options granted by the Company also are designed to help the Company retain executive officers in that options are not exercisable at the time of grant, and achieve their maximum value only if the executive remains in the Company's employ for a period of years. The Company did not grant any options to the Chief Executive Officer during 1998 (however, the Company assumed Mr. Havner's Converted Options in the AOPP Merger). Options were granted to the other named executive officers as reflected above in the table captioned "Option Grants in Last Fiscal Year." The number of options granted to individual executive officers is based on a number of factors, including seniority, individual performance, and the number of options previously granted to such executive officer, including Converted Options.

The 1997 Plan also authorizes the Company to compensate its executive officers and other employees with grants of restricted stock. Restricted stock would increase in value as the value of the Common Stock increased, and would vest over time provided that the executive officer remained in the employ of the Company. Accordingly, awards of restricted stock would serve the Company's objectives of retaining its executive officers and other employees and motivating them to advance the interests of the Company and its shareholders. The Company did not grant any shares of restricted stock during 1998.

STOCK PRICE PERFORMANCE GRAPH

The graph set forth below compares the yearly change in the cumulative total shareholder return on the Common Stock (formerly Common Stock Series A) of the Company (formerly Public Storage Properties XI, Inc.) for the five-year period ended December 31, 1998 to the cumulative total return of the American Stock Exchange Market Value Index ("AMEX Index") and the National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts Equity Index ("NAREIT Equity Index") for the same period (total shareholder return equals price appreciation plus dividends). The stock price performance graph assumes that the value of the investment in the Company's Common Stock and each index was $100 on December 31, 1993 and that all dividends were reinvested. The stock price performance shown in the graph is not necessarily indicative of future price performance.

PROPOSAL NO. 2

AMENDMENT TO THE ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

The Company's articles of incorporation include provisions designed to assist the Company in meeting the stock ownership requirements for continued qualification as a "Real Estate Investment Trust" ("REIT") for income tax purposes. One of the REIT ownership tests generally prohibits any five or fewer "individuals" from owning more than 50% of the value of the outstanding stock of a REIT (the "5/50 Rule"). In that respect, the Company's articles of incorporation currently impose an "Ownership Limit" that generally precludes any "Person" from owning or acquiring more than 2% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock. For this purpose, the articles of incorporation generally define "Person" to mean an individual, corporation, partnership, limited liability company, estate, trust, association, private foundation within the meaning of Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, joint stock company or other entity. The articles of incorporation also authorize the Board of Directors to grant exceptions to that limit, when appropriate and provided that the granting of the exception would not jeopardize the Company's REIT status.

The Ownership Limit for the Company's Common Stock was established in connection with the AOPP Merger when AOPP was essentially wholly owned by PSI, which is also a REIT. The Company's Ownership Limit was originally established to correspond with the 2% limit applicable to public shareholders of PSI. Since the initial establishment of the Company's Ownership Limit, PSI's ownership interest in the Company has been considerably reduced by the issuance of a substantial number of shares of the Company's Common Stock to other investors. PSI currently owns less than a 50% interest in the Company (treating interests that PSI and affiliates hold in PS Business Parks, L.P. as if converted into shares of the Company's Common Stock). In light of that fact, and as a result of requests from representatives of institutional investors, the Company previously adopted an exception to its Ownership Limit permitting ownership of up to 7% of the Company's Common Stock by certain institutional investors without requiring that such an investor seek a specific, individual exception from the Board.

At this time, the Company is proposing to amend its articles of incorporation to increase the Ownership Limit to 7% for any Person. The Board of Directors believes that such a change may facilitate the Company's ability to attract large investors to the Company.

Exhibit A contains a complete text of the proposed amendment to the Company's articles of incorporation.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Company's outstanding shares of Common Stock is required to approve the amendment to the Company's articles of incorporation. For these purposes, an abstention or broker non-vote will have the effect of a vote against the proposal. The officers and directors of the Company intend to vote their shares in favor of the amendment.

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote FOR this amendment.
